

Changing Lifestyle

What Are the Things We Do?

I'm thinking about it!

The contemplation stage is the second stage of behavior change. People in this stage become aware that they should change their behavior and are seriously thinking about making changes in their behaviors. However, people have not made a commitment to take action. At this time, it helpful to work with participants to consider making lifestyle changes by assessing their exercise and nutrition behaviors.

Unit 2 Contents

LESSON 9 WHAT ARE THE THINGS WE DO?65

Participant Handout(s):
Good Things About Me

LESSON 10 WHAT IS MY HEART RATE? . . .69

Instructor Reference(s):
Calculating Target Heart Rate
Participant Handout(s):
Week 3 News
What Is Heart Rate?

LESSON 11 WHAT IS MY BLOOD PRESSURE?75

Instructor Reference(s):
Blood Pressure and Exercise
Participant Handout(s):
What Is Blood Pressure?

LESSON 12 WHAT EXERCISES DO I LIKE IN MY COMMUNITY? . . .80

Participant Handout(s):
Exercises and Activities I Like

LESSON 13 WHAT ARE GOOD AND BAD INFLUENCES?84

Instructor Reference(s):
Positive Things Related to Exercise
Negative Things Related to Exercise
Participant Handout(s):
Week 4 News
Influences on My Exercise and Nutrition Plan

LESSON 14 AM I DRINKING ENOUGH WATER?90

Instructor Reference(s):
How Much Water Should I Drink?
Participant Handout(s):
Am I Drinking Enough Water Every Day?
Bottled or Tap Water?
Participant Game: Am I Drinking Enough Water Every Day?

LESSON 15 WHAT FOODS DO I LIKE TO EAT?96

Instructor Reference(s):
Soft Foods
Participant Handout(s):
Foods and Beverages I Like to Eat and Drink
Putting Foods I Like to Eat in the Food Pyramid

LESSON 16 HOW ABOUT MY MEDICATIONS AND EXERCISE?102

Instructor Reference(s):
How Do Medications Affect Heart Rate and Blood Pressure?
Participant Handout(s):
Week 5 News
How Do My Medications Make Me Feel When I Exercise?